General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

N.B. If part (a) of the question is INCORRECT, then a maximum of 2 marks can be awarded for part (b).

Question Number	Question	Marks
1 (a)	Answer: C (Efficient use of resources)	1
1 (b)	Explain why this answer is correct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Definition of matrix organisation structure e.g. one which uses personnel from different departments for a project/ task (1)</li> <li>• Experts and equipment can be shared across projects and departments (1)</li> <li>• This is more efficient because it uses the personnel with the right skills for that particular project/ This is more efficient because it saves time in communication (1)</li> </ul> Alternatively, up to two of the marks above can be achieved by explaining (not defining) distracters, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A is wrong because a person has to report to two different managers rather than just having one chain of command (1)</li> <li>• B is wrong because there are often conflicts due to having two different managers controlling one employee (1)</li> <li>• D is wrong because the additional layer of overhead caused by the second set of managers increases costs (1)</li> </ul> Any acceptable answer that shows selective knowledge/understanding/application and/or development. N.B. up to 2 marks out of 3 may be gained for part (b) if part (a) is incorrect.	1-3 marks (Total 4)

Question Number	Question
9(b)	Evaluate the use of a recruitment agency by LEGO Group to hire its new employees. (Evidence C)		(8 marks)
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content
1	1-2	Knowledge/understanding of external recruitment methods	e.g. recruiting from outside the organisation  e.g. a business which liaises between employers and jobseekers
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised to the Lego Group	e.g. Lego need a wide range of employees from different functional areas such as sales, R&D, production  e.g. Lego will need new employees in a range of locations including London, Shanghai and Connecticut
3	5-6	Analysis in context must be present, i.e. in this case the candidate must identify and explain the reasons/causes/costs/consequences of external recruitment for the Lego Group  NB if analysis is not in context limit to Level 2.	e.g. the agency takes responsibility for advertising the role and the selection procedure  e.g. different specialist recruitment agencies in different countries could be used which saves money in the long term as they will have specialist employees already signed up to their agency  e.g. Lego would save time on having to interview huge volumes of potential candidates who may not be suitable
4	7-8	Evaluation must be present and in context showing the impact of the Lego Group using external recruitment  Award 7 marks if one side only is in context  Award 8 marks if BOTH sides are in context  NB if evaluation not in context limit to Level 3.	e.g. there is usually a fee (usually a % of the employees' wages) for a successful placement which will be substantial due to the large number of employees Lego are recruiting  e.g. it may have been cheaper to have placed a job advert/used a job centre which gives Lego more control over who is employed

Question Number	Question
10	Assess the importance to the LEGO Group of maintaining high quality in its products.		12
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content
1	1-2	Knowledge/understanding of quality must be present	e.g. quality is about meeting the needs and expectations of customers  e.g. high quality includes durability, value for money, reliable, good design
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised to the Lego Group	e.g. Lego toys are of a high quality and Lego have had zero product recalls (Evidence B)
3	5-6	Analysis in context must be present, i.e. the candidate must give reasons/causes/costs/consequences of the Lego Group maintaining high quality  NB if analysis is not in context limit to Level 2.	e.g. The toys need to be durable for they will be played with for many years by children  e.g. the Lego toys need to be of high quality due to the fact they are designed for playing with and aimed at children so have to be safe (Evidence B)  e.g. The nature of the product means that it is in Lego's interests to ensure high quality in order to maintain brand loyalty and it is one of the things the company is known for and is part of their motto (Evidence A)
4	7-12	Low Level 4: 7-8 marks Limited evaluation must be present and in context on one side  Mid Level 4: 9-10 marks Evaluation must be present and in context on both sides to illustrate  High Level 4: 11-12 marks Evaluation is developed to show a candidate's real perceptiveness. Several strands may be developed: the answer is clear, coherent and articulate, leading to a convincing conclusion.  NB if evaluation not in context limit to Level 3.	e.g. checking the quality of the toys may add to the overall cost of production and therefore makes the Lego toys more expensive compared with cheaper alternatives  e.g. other factors such as the range of toys and price of the Lego toys are also just as important to the success of the brand, not just the quality of the toys.

Question Number	Question
11	Evaluate the importance of the product life cycle to the LEGO Group .		14
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content
1	1-2	Knowledge/understanding of what is meant by product life cycle Material presented is often irrelevant and lacks organisation. Frequent punctuation and/or grammar errors are likely to be present and the writing is generally unclear..	e.g. It describes the stages a product goes through from when it was first thought of until it finally is removed from the market. e.g. it consists of stages such as introduction, growth, maturity and decline
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised and applied to the Lego Group Material is presented with some relevance but there are likely to be passages which lack proper organisation. Punctuation and/or grammar errors are likely to be present that affect clarity and coherence.	e.g. the original Lego brick was launched in 1958 and is still in its maturity stage of the product life cycle e.g. Lego have launched new products such as Lego Chima and the Lego Movie
3	5-8	Analysis in context must be present, i.e. the candidate must give reasons/causes/costs/consequences of the product life cycle for the Lego Group NB if analysis is not in context limit to Level 2. Material is presented in a generally relevant and logical way but this may not be sustained throughout. Some punctuation and/or grammar errors may be found which cause some passages to lack clarity or coherence.	e.g. toys may have a short life cycle so Lego will need to know when to launch new toys into the market e.g. it may help Lego forecast demand for its different ranges of toys e.g. Lego can have a range of toys at different stages of their life cycle in order to replace toys which have entered the decline stage of the life cycle
4	9-14	Low Level 4: 9-10 marks. Evaluation must be present and in context on one side, e.g. showing possible advantages and disadvantages of the product life cycle Mid Level 4: 11-12 marks Evaluation must be present	e.g. it is difficult to foresee transitions in product life cycle stages since the key indicator are sales, which are always calculated with some lag. e.g. slowing sales of toys do not necessarily mean the

	and in context on both sides, to show the impact of the product life cycle High Level 4: 13-14 marks Evaluation is developed to show a candidate's real perceptiveness. Several strands may be developed: the answer is clear, coherent and articulate, leading to a convincing conclusion. NB if evaluation not in context limit to Level 3. Material is presented in a relevant and logical way. Some punctuation and/or grammar errors may be found but the writing has overall clarity and coherence.	product has reached the Decline phase and the resulting conclusion to retire the toy and divert resources is wrong. e.g. not all toys go through every stage of the product life cycle and the success of a toy will depend upon a number of external factors which might be difficult to control
